GRADUAL Tune: O Filii et Filiae
O SONS and daughters, let us sing!
The King of heaven, the glorious King,
O'er death to-day rose triumphing.

Alleluia!

That Easter morn, at break of day,
The faithful women went their way
To seek the tomb where Jesus lay.

Alleluia!

An angel clad in white they see,
Who sat, and spake unto the three,
"Your Lord doth go to Galilee."

Alleluia!

On this most holy day of days,
To God your hearts and voices raise,
In laud, and jubilee, and praise.

Alleluia!

The Offering

*THE SENTENCES

ANTHEM Martin Shaw

THEY buried him, and then the soldiers
slept;
The city feasted; and the feasters told
How all the crucifyings had been done.

But before dawn the heavy stone unrolled,
The grave-clothes fell, the Living Form
outstept.

Man's many-millioned darkness knew the sun.

We are all buried deep. Arise. Arise
In us, O Living Form, out of this hate,
This greed, this night, this starving in the stone.

Roll back the self-shut boulders of our fate,
That we may know our power and be wise
In the light forever about us truly known.

John Massfield

ALLELUIA. Christians to the Paschal Victim offer your thankful praises. A lamb the sheep redeemeth: Christ, who only is sinless, reconcileth sinners to the Father. Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous: The Prince of Life, who died, reigns immortal. Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning! Amen. Alleluia.

NOW is Christ risen from the dead,

For since by man came death,

For this corruptible must put on incorruption,

O grave, where is thy victory?

GRADUAL Richard Dirksen

CHRIST our Passover is sacrificed for us: therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Christ is risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

EASTER Day breaks,

EASTER

THE lark at sunrise trills it high,
The greeting—Christ is risen!
And through the wood the blackbird pipes
The greeting—Christ is risen!
Beneath the eaves the swallows cry
The greeting—Christ is risen!
Throughout the world man's heart proclaims
The greeting—Christ is risen!
And echo answers from the grave,
In truth, yes, he is risen.

THOUGHT FOR EASTER

O HAPPY world to-day if we could know
The message of that morning long ago!
There is no dark despair that cannot be
Evicted from the heart's Gethsemane;
For faith is always more than unbelief,
And vibrant courage triumphs over grief.

87 FORTUNATUS

A. S. Sullivan

- “WELCOME, happy morning!” age to age shall say:
 Hell today is vanquished, heaven is won today!
 Lo! the dead is living, God for evermore!
 Him, their true Creator, all his works adore!
 “Welcome, happy morning!” age to age shall say.
- 2 Earth her joy confesses, clothing her for spring,
 All fresh gifts returned with her returning King:
 Bloom in every meadow, leaves on every bough,
 Speak his sorrow ended, hail his triumph now. Refrain
- 3 Months in due succession, days of lengthening light,
 Hours and passing moments praise thee in their flight.
 Brightness of the morning, sky and fields and sea,
 Vanquisher of darkness, bring their praise to thee. Refrain
- 4 Maker and Redeemer, life and health of all,
 Thou from heaven beholding human nature's fall,
 Of the Father's Godhead true and only Son,
 Manhood to deliver, manhood didst put on. Refrain
- 5 Thou, of life the author, death didst undergo,
 Tread the path of darkness, saving strength to show;
 Come then, true and faithful, now fulfil thy word,
 'Tis thine own third morning! rise, O buried Lord! Refrain
- 6 Loose the souls long prisoned, bound with Satan's chain;
 All that now is fallen raise to life again;
 Show thy face in brightness, bid the nations see;
 Bring again our daylight: day returns with thee! Refrain

Amen.

V. H. Fortunatus

91 VICTORY

G. P. Sante da Palestrina adapted with Alleluias by William H. Monk

- Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
- THE strife is o'er, the battle done,
The victory of life is won;
The song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!
- 2 The powers of death have done their worst,
But Christ their legions hath dispersed:
Let shout of holy joy outburst.
Alleluia!
- 3 The three sad days are quickly sped,
He rises glorious from the dead:
All glory to our risen Head!
Alleluia!
- 4 He closed the yawning gates of hell,
The bars from heaven's high portals fell;
Let hymns of praise his triumphs tell!
Alleluia!
- 5 Lord! by the stripes which wounded thee,
From death's dread sting thy servants free,
That we may live and sing to thee.
Alleluia! Amen.
Latin

94 ST. KEVIN

A. S. Sullivan

- COME, ye faithful, raise the strain
Of triumphant gladness;
God hath brought his Israel
Into joy from sadness;
Loosed from Pharaoh's bitter yoke
Jacob's sons and daughters;
Led them with unmoistened foot
Through the Red Sea waters.
- 2 'Tis the spring of souls today;
Christ hath burst his prison,
And from three days' sleep in death
As a sun hath risen;
All the winter of our sins,
Long and dark, is flying
From his light, to whom we give Laud and praise undying.
- 3 Now the queen of seasons, bright
With the day of splendor,
With the royal feast of feasts,
Comes its joy to render;
Comes to glad Jerusalem,
Who with true affection
Welcomes in unwearied strains
Jesus' resurrection.
- 4 Neither might the gates of death,
Nor the tomb's dark portal,
Nor the watchers, nor the seal
Hold thee as a mortal:
But today amidst thine own
Thou didst stand, bestowing
That thy peace which evermore
Passeth human knowing. Amen.
St. John of Damascus

HE IS RISEN
The Witnesses

The Watch

O MASTERS, we have seen such sights!
As ne'er before to men were shown!
An angel robbed us of our strength
And rolled away the sealed stone!
And he who in the tomb was laid
Came calmly forth and went his way!
No power had we to move or speak
We are undone! What shall we say!

Mary

I thought His dear form to anoint,
And hastened at the early dawn
With spices rare and odors sweet—
The tomb was empty! He was gone!
With streaming eyes, I turned away,
And deeper still grew my despair,
When, lo, a sweet voice called my name,
I turned, my risen Lord stood there!

Thomas

I doubted those who said He lived;
I asked for signs of sight and touch
Was e'er such sweet compassion shown?
He granted me as much,
I saw the nail-pierced hands and feet,
I touched the wounded side,
He bade me look and doubt, no more—
"My Lord, my God!" I cried.

Stephan

The heavens are opened and I see
The Christ in glory there.
He stands beside his Father's throne
Most radiantly fair,
He is the Saviour, long foretold,
Hear ye my words. Believe!
He is alive for evermore—
Lord, Christ, my soul receive!

Aleyona Johnson

I PERCEIVED that a great Warriour had fought with and slain him that had the power of Death, but not without great danger to himself, which made me love him the more.

For, as they said, and as I believe (said Christian) he did it with the loss of much blood; but that which put Glory of Grace into all he did, was, that he did it out of pure love to his Country. And besides, there were some of them of the Household that said they had seen and spoke with him since he did dye on the Cross; and they have attested that they had it from his own lips, that he is such a lover of poor Pilgrims, that the like is not to be found from the East to the West.

They moreover gave an instance of what they affirmed, and that was, He had stript himself of his glory, that he might do this for the Poor; and that they heard him say and affirm, That he would not dwell in the Mountain of Zion alone. They said, moreover, that he had made many Pilgrims Princes, though by nature they were Beggars born, and their original had been the Dunghill.

John Bunyan
